FATHER KNOWS BEST... Fr. Jacques Kik

What are Indulgences?

...Continued.

At the early church, Indulgences were granted to penitents who were guilty of grave sin, as a way to help them amend it by prayers, alms-deeds, or pious pilgrimages. Modern Indulgences are wider and accessible to all Christians who seek to expiate the temporal punishments of their sins. Early Indulgences were associated with days. For example, going on a pilgrimage would allow the penitent to expiate 90 days of their canonical penance, which could have been standing at the door of the church for 90 days and asking the believers for their prayers, or fasting for 90 days, etc.

Therefore, the amount of days that we often see associated with Indulgences in older publications has nothing to do with the time spent in Purgatory. It simply refers to the amount of remission granted, proportionate to what ancient Christians would have received for performing that many days' penance. Today, numbers of days are no longer associated with indulgences; they are either plenary or partial. An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin.

To gain a partial indulgence, you must perform with a contrite heart the act to which the indulgence is attached (For ex: customary Catholic prayers; signing oneself with the sign of the cross while saying "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit"; Raising the mind to God with humble trust while performing one's duties and bearing life's difficulties; Freely abstaining in a spirit of penance from something licit and pleasant; etc.)

To gain a plenary indulgence you must perform the proposed act with a contrite heart free from all attachment to sin, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, and pray for the pope's intentions. These acts include: Piously reading or listening to Sacred Scripture for at least half an hour; Adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist for at least half an hour; The pious exercise of the Stations of the Cross; Receiving, even by radio or television, the blessing given by the Pope Urbi et Orbi (to the city of Rome and to the world); Taking part for at least three full days in a spiritual retreat; visiting the parochial church on its feast day and reciting one Our Father and the Creed, etc.
