A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

The moment we have been anticipating is here. We gather this weekend to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. A promise He made that He would destroy this temple and raise it up in three days. Saint John explained to us that He was speaking about the temple of His body. Jesus was mocked and ridiculed at the time He said it and His words were used to mock and ridicule Him again when He was on the cross. Yet with Jesus, a promise made is a promise kept, and we are here as witnesses to His promise kept, that He was raised on the third day and that promise is an everlasting invitation to follow Him towards glory. He is our hope and our light.

In our world, we are plagued with so many concerns that darken our reality. Sickness, death, political and cultural turmoil, a growing rate of isolation from our neighbor, supposed tolerance devoid of charity, a lack of empathy, the rejection of God, and the list goes on and on. We look around for the remedy, and ask, Where is our God in these times? Where is our Lord, Jesus? My God, my God, why have you forsaken us? I think we all have felt this way at one time or another. Our Lord felt that on the cross, did He not? He repeated the words found in Psalm 22, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" In His humanity our Lord shared the anguish of feeling that separation from God, especially in His most vulnerable time, as the world had turned against Him, on the cross humiliated, beaten, and destroyed. With all of this happening, God's plan would not be altered, His promise would be kept, and the suffering and death of Jesus on the cross were not in vain, nor was it the end.

This is the message of our faith. The difficulties, the trials, the tribulations, and the suffering that we feel are not the end nor do we suffer in vain. As much as we may feel at times that our God has forsaken us, we know deep in our hearts the darkness can never overtake the light. Jesus shows us with His life, death, and resurrection, that God is steadfast in His promise and it is through the Son we see the immensity of the Father's love. Jesus our Lord, Jesus our brother, is our guide and is our beacon of light through the darkness. He has entered into the darkness with us and reminds us to follow Him. Why? Because of his immense love and mercy for us. He knows the depths of the darkness; He not only entered it but conquered it through His Resurrection. He is our hope and He lights our path to glory. Our suffering may not disappear, but we are able to carry our cross with strength knowing that Jesus is by our side. As our Lord had Simon of Cyrene to help carry His cross, Jesus comes to our aid to help carry ours. He tells us in Matthew, "For my yoke is easy and my burden light."

The resurrection is a reminder that the Savior of the world has saved us. His promise is that in following Him we will be able to conquer the world. To conquer the world, He invites us to give Him our challenges so that He may take them from us. As we offer our cross to Jesus, we feel it lighten as He helps us carry it. We are filled with the confidence of the Resurrection, that He who conquered the darkness will help us conquer the darkness in our lives. To follow Jesus is not for the faint of heart, the beauty of our Lord is He doesn't ask us to be strong, He asks us to trust in His strength, and to be faithful knowing that He carries us. Jesus tells us, "I have told you this so that you might have peace in me. In the world, you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world." This is the hope of the Resurrection, this is the promise of our Lord, and He is the light of the world. He died for us, he died for you. He has risen for us, and has risen for you!

Happy Easter! Christ is Risen! He is Truly Risen!
