A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP ZAIDAN

August 4th will mark the 3rd anniversary of the explosion at the Port of Beirut. Many people lost their lives that day, many were wounded and scarred for life, and many lost their livelihoods. Lebanon and its people continue to suffer greatly due to inflation, job loss, governmental upheaval and more. We as Maronites and friends carry Lebanon in our hearts.

On Sunday, August 6th, I call on all parishes, missions and individuals of the Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon to hold a day of solidarity and prayer for Lebanon, as well as remembrance for the victims and families of the Port of Beirut explosion, for the election of a new Lebanese President, the formation of a new government in Lebanon, and definitely the long-awaited justice for all the victims.

Let us resolve to prayer asking our Lord to hear our plea, and may he guide all officials and people of goodwill to look the well-being and interests of Lebanon. Also, I urge you to extend a helping hand to the different charitable organizations and institutions such as Caritas Lebanon and the Catholic Schools Association. You can visit the Eparchy's website to make a donation if you wish.

I am sincerely grateful for your compassion and support. May our loving God reward you abundantly!

Yours in Christ,

+A. Elias Zaidan
